

Prepositional Phrases

Try to locate the prepositional phrase used in each sentence and underline the word it modifies.

1. She has not seen her classmate for ages.
2. They continued the activity without the teacher.
3. He saw the missing books between the shelves.

Try to locate the prepositional phrase that functions as an adjective and underline the word it modifies.

1. The hotel by the sea is very expensive.
2. The boy in the blue hat bought the last candy.
3. The classes between 9:00 a.m. and 12:00 a.m. are fun.
4. The room down the hall is the principal's office.
5. The boat near the shore is reserved.

Try to locate the prepositional phrase that functions as an adverb and underline the word it modifies.

1. The boat sinks into the ocean.
2. They are traveling around the world.
3. She believes that exercise is good for her body.
4. For a non-native speaker, she speaks very well.
5. They arrived on time.

